and E India Company, 132, Bacon's
outburst to, 138, and Duke Orsmo, ^-S* said to be frightened of Essex, 140, and Hayward's book, 142-3, constancy during Essex's rising, 148-9, her thanks to citizens, 149-150, Lee's plot against,
151, 154, applauded at sermon,
153, ambassador sent from Scotland to, 168, Essex's original plan against, 173, has account of rebellion rewritten, 177, and M
De Bcussise, 179, and Burgh's son, 184, and Lambarde, 193-4,
her saying of Richard ft, 194,
entertains Biron, 201, speech
about Essex, 202, and Hannton, 204, much travelled, 204, at opening of Parliament, 205-6, totters, 207, Speaker presented to, 207-9, coldly received, 209, her necessities, 211, suspicions of James VI, 213 , sends for Speaker,
226, promises repeal of monopolies,
227, allows access of members of Parliament, 230, her speech of thanks to members, 231 -3, at dissolution of Parliament, 240, speech at, 241, and Falstaff, 259, her rheumatism and uncertain temper, 267, and Catholic controversy, 269, good health of, 269-270, and Barlow, 272, stays quarrel between Vere and Northumberland* 275, rewards conjuror, 276, on Dethick, 287, and Lord Eure, 290-1, Lincoln's scandal concerning, 292, visits Hare-field, 292, 293, enjoys country dances, 299, and Cecil's portrait, 299-300, and Bodley, 300, her good health, 300, entertains Duke Stettin, 300-1, unwilling to receive Tyrone, 303, and priests, 304-5 > refuses toleration, 305, entry into Whitehall, 306, dines with Cecil, 308, signs
of infirmity in, 309, and Hannton, 309, seculars and, 310, and new Sergeants, 314—15, consents to Tyrone's reception, 3*5» *&&
Venetian ambassador, 3T5~l6 * alarm concerning, 319-3*0, and memory of Essex, 320, 324, sleepless, 320, recovering, 322, and Carey, 324,
supposed causes of melancholy,
324-5, speaks of her successor,
325, names James VI as successor,
325, 326, prayers for, 325 , anxieties
for future, 326, dying, 320-7,
death of, 3218
----Princess of Hessea, 11,140

Elizabeth, Princess of Scotland, u, 15$
«-----*of Plymouth, The, i, 312
^T~ "' toy™; The,* u, 97, 99
Ems, —, u, 76
----George, i, 259
Elvetham, the Queen at, i, 54-8
Ely, Isle of, i, 74, «s 67, 152, 318, 111,85
----House,i, H2
----Rents, u, 82
Emden, u, 277, m, 77
Emperor, The, u, 76, 82, 186, 213, 249,294
*Encomion of Lady Pecurua The, u, 329
Enclosures, u, 150,161, 230-1
Endumon, i, 59
----and Phat&e) u, 20
Enfield Chase, u, 208,209
Enghuizen, i, 121, 122
England's Helicon ^ in, 102
----Parnassus ^ m, 118
Englefield, Sir Franas,i, 207
*English History, The,*in, 289
----Schoolmaster, The, «5 i$6
---*Phlebotomy 2^,1,219
Englishmen, reputation of, ui, 183
Engrossing of gram, m, 122
Eniuskillen, n, 25
EnslowHill,ii, 156,161
Epicedium ^ x, 298
Epigrams (Davies*), m, 21
Epigrams banned, m, 21
Epigrams in the Oldest cut, in, 62
Epithalajmum^i^ 333
Epuremi, u, 55, 56
Equivocation, Doctnne and practice of,
111,111,218-19,264, 317
Ernest, Archduke, Governor m Low
Countries, i, 323, 327-8
Emngton, Mr, i, 126
Erskine, John, 7& &*! of Mar, t, 3*1; m, 108-9,162,168
----Thos , i, 321
Sir Thos., iti, 108

Essays (Bacon's), u> 165

----(ComwaUisO, 111, *H
----0obnson*s), ui, 250
Essex, i, 104, 195, 255, 268, 310, 11, 75, 108, 185, 248, 276, 32$; ui, 3, 102, 103, 141, 176, i9*> x9J
---Countess of, it, 258, not allowed to see Essex, m, 54; at Court, ui, 56, visits Essex, ui, 58> $ 75> 78, allowed to leave Essex House, m, 148* cosened by Darnel, ui, 184-5

----Earl of, see Devereux, Robfc

----House, u, 258, 304, 305; u*»